25X1A 25X1A 25X1A 25X1A 25X1A 25X1A PLACE OBTAINED DATE OF CONTENT prior to labe August and December 1952 DATE OBTAINED DATE OBTAINED 25X1A DATE OBTAINED 12 Merch 1953 REFERENCES PAGES ENCLOSURES (No. & TYPE) REMARKS 1. In late May 1952, a barracks installation on the southwest side of wh. Micklewicze in Stettin (0 54/0 95) quartered Folish border guard tamps. Radio equipment was observed on the roof of a barracks building in the back of the installation. 5X1 2. In late May 1952, Folish soldiers wearing greyish blue unifors were observed in the former News Artillerie Easerne on the north side of wh. Former News Artillerie Easerne on the north side of wh. Former News Artillerie Easerne on the north side of wh. Former News Artillerie Easerne on the north side of wh. Former News Artillerie Easerne on the north side of wh. State of	COUNTRY	CLASSIFICATION CONSTDENTIAL POLAR Approved For Release 2003/12/11 : CIA-RDP8R-008R9A000900500002-5 . 25
PLACE OBTAINED
DATE OF CONTENT_Erior to leke August and December 1952 DATE OBTAINED 25X1A DATE PREPARED. 18 Names 1953 REFERENCES. PAGES 2 ENCLOSURES (No. & TIPE) REMARKS. 1. In late May 1952, a barracks installation on the southwest side of ul. Micklevices in Stettin (0 54/2 95) quartered Folish border guard tamps. Radio equipment was observed on the roof of a barracks building in the back of the installation. 25X1X 25	3 C/1 1 W
DATE OF CONTENT_prior to lake August and December 1952 DATE OBTAINED 25X1A DATE PREPARED 18 Merch 1953 REFERENCES PAGES 2 ENCLOSURES (NO. 8 NFE) REMARKS 25X1X 1. In late May 1952, a barracks installation on the southwest side of U. Nickiewicza in Stettin (0 54/2 55) quartered Polish border guard topps. Radio equipment was observed on the roof of a barracks building in the back of the installation. 25. In late May 1952, Polish soldiers wearing greyish blue uniforms were observed in the former New Artilleric Reserve on the north side of U. Xu Sloney, forerly Nacieja Fataja. The sentry were black cap band and a black chin strap. Some jeeps were observed in the formacks area. In a black chin strap. Some jeeps were observed in the marks area. In the tanks had barrels projecting beyond their for type approaching from the south on Aleja Enbaterow Warssawy commoning into U. Ku Sloney. From the south on Aleja Enbaterow Warssawy commoning into U. Ku Sloney. From the south on Aleja Enbaterow Warssawy commoning into U. Ku Sloney. From the south on Aleja Enbaterow Warssawy commoning into U. Ku Sloney. From the south on Aleja Enbaterow Warssawy commoning into U. Ku Sloney. From the south on Aleja Enbaterow Warssawy commoning into U. Ku Sloney. From the south on Aleja Enbaterow Warssawy commoning into U. Ku Sloney. From the south on Aleja Enbaterow warssawy commoning into U. Ku Sloney. From the drivers, who looked through the drivers betteres, two leather helmste. Artillerie Kaserne 2 3. A sentry who were a khakt uniform and a blue cap band was observed in front of the former Viktoria Kasorne I on the south side of ul. Gen Jowinskiego between Ul. Killnekiego and Al. Piasow. 3	PRACTICAL PARTICIPATION OF THE PRACTICAL PROPERTY OF THE PROPE	25Υ1Δ
25X1A DATE PREPARED. 18 March 1953 REFERENCES. PAGES 2 ENCLOSURES (NO. & TYPE). REMARKS. 1. In late May 1952, a barracks installation on the southwest side of W. Mickiewicza in Stettin (O. 54/0. 55) quertered Polish border guard tropps. Radio equipment was observed on the roof of a barracks building in the back of the installation. 25X1 2. In late May 1952, Polish soldiers wearing greyish blue uniforts were observed in the former Neus Artillerie Kaseme on the north side of Ul. Ku Sloneu, formerly Macieja Fataja. The sentry wore a black cap band and a black chin strap. Some jesps were parks of one type approaching from the south on Aleja Echaterow Warszawy and turning into ul. Ku Sloneu. The tanks had barrels projecting beyond their hulls and sore pointing to the fore and some to the rear. Soldiers wearing greyish blue uniforms with black cap bands and pulled-down chin straps rode on the rear of each tank. Only the driver's hetches, were leather helmets. 5X1 A sentry who were a khaki uniform and a blue cap band was observed in front of the former Viktoria Kaserme I on the south side of ul. Gen Gowinskiego between ul. Killinskiego and Al. Piesow. 3
REFERENCES PAGES 2 ENCLOSURES (NO. & TYPE) REMARKS 1. In late May 1952, a barracks installation on the southwest side of ul. Nickiewicae in Stettin (0.54/8.5) quartered Folish border guard twops. Radio equipment was observed on the roof of a barracks building in the back of the installation. 2. In late May 1952, Polish soldiers wearing greyish blue uniforrs were observed in the former News Artillerie Kaserne on the north side of ul. In Sloneu, formerly Macieja Eataja. The sentry were a black cap band and a black chin strap. Some jeeps were observed in the barracks area. In August 1952, 10 to 12 large tanks of one type appreaching from the south on Aleja Behaterow Wargzawy and turning into al. An Sloneu. The tanks had barrels projecting beyond their hulls and some pointing to the force and some to the rear. Soldiers wearing greyish blue uniforms with black cap bands and pulled-down chin straps rode on the rear of each tank. Only the drivers, who looked through the driver's hetches, were leather holmets. [SX1] A sentry who were a khaki uniform and a blue cap band was observed in front of the former Viktoria Kaserne I on the south side of ul. Gen Govinskiego between ul. Kilinskiego and Al. Piasow. 3 [SX1] [SX2] [SX2] [SX2] [SX3] [SX2] [SX3] [SX4] [SX4] [SX5] [SX6] [SX6] [SX6] [SX7] [SX7] [SX7] [SX7] [SX7] [SX8] [SX8]		25V1A 38 March 1057
PAGES 2 ENCLOSURES (NO. & TYPE) REMARKS 1. In late May 1952, a barracks installation on the southwest side of ul. Mickiewicza in Stettin (0 54/2 55) quartered Folish border guard tamps. Radio equipment was observed on the roof of a barracks building in the back of the installation. 2. In late May 1952, Polish soldiers wearing greyish blue uniforrs were observed in the former News Artillerie Kaserne on the north side of ul. 25X1X 1. In late May 1952, Polish soldiers wearing greyish blue uniforrs were observed in the former News Artillerie Kaserne on the north side of ul. 25X1X 25X1X 25X1X 25X1X 25X1X 25X1 25X1 25X1 25X1 25X1 25X1 3. A sentry who were a khekt uniform and a blue cap band was observed in front of the former Viktoria Kaserne 1 on the south side of ul. Gen Jowinskiego botween ul. Kilinskiego and Al. Piasow. 3 25X1
25X1 1. In late May 1952, a barracks installation on the southwest side of ul. Nickievicza in Stettin (0 54/2 55) quartered Folish border guard temps. Radio equipment was observed on the roof of a barracks building in the back of the installation. 2. In late May 1952, Folish soldiers wearing greyish blue uniforms were observed in the former News Artillerie Kaserne on the north side of ul. XI Sloneu, forwerly Pacieja Rataja. The sentry wore a black cap band and for a black chin strap. Some jeeps were observed in the barracks area. In a black chin strap. Some jeeps were observed in the barracks area. In from the south on Aleja Poheterow Warszawy and turning into ul. Ku Sloneu. From the south on Aleja Poheterow Warszawy and turning into ul. Ku Sloneu. The tanks had barrels projecting beyond their hulls and some pointing to the fore and some to the rear. Soldiers wearing greyish blue uniforms with black cap bands and pulled-down chin straps rode on the rear of each tank. Only the drivers, who looked through the driver's hatches, were leather helmets. Artillerie Kaserne. 2 3. A sentry who were a khaki uniform and a blue cap band was observed in front of the former Withorts Kaserne i on the south side of ul. Gen Jowinskiego between ul. Kilinskiego and Al. Piasow. 3	i P
1. In late May 1952, a barracks installation on the southwest side of the Mickiewicza in Stattin (0 54/0 55) quartered Folish border guard tmops. Radio equipment was observed on the roof of a barracks building in the back of the installation. 2. In late May 1952, Folish soldiers wearing greyish blue uniforms were observed in the former News Artilleria Kaserne on the north side of ul. 25X1X 25X1X 25X1X 10 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1	PAGES 2	ENCLOSURES (NO. & TYPE)
1. In late May 1952, a barracks installation on the southwest side of ul. Mickiewicza in Stettin (0 54/4 55) quartered Folish border guard tamps. Radio equipment was observed on the roof of a barracks building in the back of the installation. 2. In late May 1952, Folish soldiers wearing greyish blue uniforms were observed in the former News Artillerie Reserve on the north side of ul. Xu Sloneu, forrerly Macieja Rataja. The sentry wore a black cap band and a black chin strap. Some jeeps were observed in the barracks area. In a black chin strap. Some jeeps were observed in the barracks area. In August 1952, 10 to 12 large tanks of one type approaching from the south on Aleja Eobaterow Warszawy and turning into ul. Au Sloneus. The tenks had barrels projecting beyond their hulls and sore pointing to the fore and some to the rear. Soldiers wearing greyish blue uniforms with black cap bands and pulled-down chin streps rode on the rear of each tank. Only cap bands and pulled-down chin streps rode on the rear of each tank. Only cap bands and pulled-down chin streps rode on the rear of each tank. Only cap bands and pulled-down chin streps rode on the rear of each tank. Only cap bands and pulled-down chin streps rode on the rear of each tank. Only cap bands and pulled-down chin streps rode on the rear of each tank. Only cap bands and pulled-down chin streps rode on the rear of each tank. Only cap bands and pulled-down chin streps rode on the rear of each tank. Only cap bands and pulled-down chin streps rode on the rear of each tank. Only cap bands and pulled-down chin streps rode on the rear of each tank. Only cap bands and pulled-down chin streps rode on the rear of each tank. Only cap bands and pulled-down chin streps rode on the rear of each tank. Only cap bands and pulled-down chin streps rode on the rear of each tank. Only cap bands and pulled-down chin streps rode on the rear of each tank. Only cap bands and pulled-down chin streps rode on the rear of each tank. Only cap bands and pulled-down chin streps rode on	REMARKS
1. In late May 1952, a barracks installation on the scuthwest side of ul. Nickiewicza in Stettin (0 54/2 55) quartered Folish border guard txpps. Radio equipment was observed on the roof of a barracks building in the back of the installation. 25X1 2. In late May 1952, Polish soldiers wearing greyish blue uniforms were observed in the former News Artillerie Kaserne on the north side of ul. X Sloneu, formerly Macieja Rataja. The sentry wore a black cap band and a black chin strap. Some jeeps were observed in the barracks area. In August 1952, 10 to 12 large tanks of one type approaching from the south on Aleja Echaterow Warszawy and turning into ul. Ku Sloneu. The tanks had barrels projecting beyond their hulls and some pointing to the fore and some to the rear. Soldiers wearing greyish blue uniforms with black cap bands and pulled-down chin straps rode on the rear of each tank. Only the drivers, who looked through the driver's hatches, were leather helmets. Artillerie Kaserne. 2 3. A sentry who were a khaki uniform and a blue cap band was observed in front of the former Viktoria Kaserne I on the south side of ul. Gen Jowinskiego between ul. Killinskiego and Al. Plasow. 3	Marine west to be before the market
1. In late May 1952, a barracks installation on the scuthwest side of ul. Nickiewicza in Stettin (0 54/2 55) quartered Folish border guard txpps. Radio equipment was observed on the roof of a barracks building in the back of the installation. 25X1 2. In late May 1952, Polish soldiers wearing greyish blue uniforms were observed in the former News Artillerie Kaserne on the north side of ul. X Sloneu, formerly Macieja Rataja. The sentry wore a black cap band and a black chin strap. Some jeeps were observed in the barracks area. In August 1952, 10 to 12 large tanks of one type approaching from the south on Aleja Echaterow Warszawy and turning into ul. Ku Sloneu. The tanks had barrels projecting beyond their hulls and some pointing to the fore and some to the rear. Soldiers wearing greyish blue uniforms with black cap bands and pulled-down chin straps rode on the rear of each tank. Only the drivers, who looked through the driver's hatches, were leather helmets. Artillerie Kaserne. 2 3. A sentry who were a khaki uniform and a blue cap band was observed in front of the former Viktoria Kaserne I on the south side of ul. Gen Jowinskiego between ul. Killinskiego and Al. Plasow. 3
1. In late May 1952, a barracks installation on the scuthwest side of Wl. Micklevicza in Stettin (0 54/Q 55) quartered Folish border guard tropps. Radio equipment was observed on the roof of a barracks building in the back of the installation. 2. In late May 1952, Polish soldiers wearing greyish blue uniforms were observed in the former Neus Artillerie Kaserne on the north side of Wl. Xu Sloncu, formerly Macieja Fataja. The sentry wore a black cap band and a black chin strap. Some jeeps were observed in the barracks area. In a larguest 1952, 10 to 12 large tanks of one type approaching from the south on Aleja Echaetrow Warszawy and turning into wl. Ku Sloncu. The tanks had barrels projecting beyond their hulls and some pointing to the form and some to the rear. Soldiers wearing greyish blue uniforms with black cap bands and pulled-down chin straps rode on the rear of each tank. Only the drivers, who looked through the driver's hatches, were leather helmets. [SX1] A sentry who were a khaki uniform and a blue cap band was observed in front of the former Viktoria Kaserne I on the south side of wl. Gen Jowinskiego between wl. Killinskiego and Al. Piasow. 3	25X1	25X1X
Radio equipment was observed on the roof of a barracks building in the back of the installation. 2. In late 'ay 1952, Polish soldiers wearing greyish blue uniforms were observed in the former News Artillerie Kaserne on the north side of ul. Nu Sloncu, formerly Macieja Rataja. The sentry were a black cap band and a black chin strap. Some jeeps were observed in the barracks area. In a black chin strap. Some jeeps were observed in the barracks area. In from the south on Aleja Echaterow Warszawy and turning into ul. Ku Sloncu. The tanks had barrels projecting beyond their hulls and some pointing to the fore and some to the rear. Soldiers wearing greyish blue uniforms with black cap bands and pulled-down chin straps rode on the rear of each tank. Only the drivers, who looked through the driver's hatches, were leather helmets. [SX1] A sentry who were a khaki uniform and a blue cap band was observed in front of the former Viktoria Kaserne I on the south side of ul. Gen Jowinskiego between ul. Killinskiego and Al. Piasow. [SX1]	- the second contract of the second contract
Radio equipment was observed on the roof of a barracks building in the back of the installation. 2. In late 'ay 1952, Polish soldiers wearing greyish blue uniforms were observed in the former News Artillerie Kaserne on the north side of ul. Nu Sloncu, formerly Macieja Rataja. The sentry were a black cap band and a black chin strap. Some jeeps were observed in the barracks area. In a black chin strap. Some jeeps were observed in the barracks area. In from the south on Aleja Echaterow Warszawy and turning into ul. Ku Sloncu. The tanks had barrels projecting beyond their hulls and some pointing to the fore and some to the rear. Soldiers wearing greyish blue uniforms with black cap bands and pulled-down chin straps rode on the rear of each tank. Only the drivers, who looked through the driver's hatches, were leather helmets. [SX1] A sentry who were a khaki uniform and a blue cap band was observed in front of the former Viktoria Kaserne I on the south side of ul. Gen Jowinskiego between ul. Killinskiego and Al. Piasow. [SX1]
Radio equipment was observed on the roof of a barracks building in the back of the installation. 2. In late 'ay 1952, Polish soldiers wearing greyish blue uniforms were observed in the former News Artillerie Kaserne on the north side of ul. Nu Sloncu, formerly Macieja Rataja. The sentry were a black cap band and a black chin strap. Some jeeps were observed in the barracks area. In a black chin strap. Some jeeps were observed in the barracks area. In from the south on Aleja Echaterow Warszawy and turning into ul. Ku Sloncu. The tanks had barrels projecting beyond their hulls and some pointing to the fore and some to the rear. Soldiers wearing greyish blue uniforms with black cap bands and pulled-down chin straps rode on the rear of each tank. Only the drivers, who looked through the driver's hatches, were leather helmets. [SX1] A sentry who were a khaki uniform and a blue cap band was observed in front of the former Viktoria Kaserne I on the south side of ul. Gen Jowinskiego between ul. Killinskiego and Al. Piasow. [SX1]	L
Radio equipment was observed on the roof of a barracks building in the back of the installation. 2. In late 'ay 1952, Polish soldiers wearing greyish blue uniforms were observed in the former News Artillerie Kaserne on the north side of ul. Nu Sloncu, formerly Macieja Rataja. The sentry were a black cap band and a black chin strap. Some jeeps were observed in the barracks area. In a black chin strap. Some jeeps were observed in the barracks area. In from the south on Aleja Echaterow Warszawy and turning into ul. Ku Sloncu. The tanks had barrels projecting beyond their hulls and some pointing to the fore and some to the rear. Soldiers wearing greyish blue uniforms with black cap bands and pulled-down chin straps rode on the rear of each tank. Only the drivers, who looked through the driver's hatches, were leather helmets. [SX1] A sentry who were a khaki uniform and a blue cap band was observed in front of the former Viktoria Kaserne I on the south side of ul. Gen Jowinskiego between ul. Killinskiego and Al. Piasow. [SX1]	e «	and a harmonic imital lation on the southwest side of U.
Each of the installation. 2. In late 'ay 1952, Polish soldiers wearing greyish blue uniforms were observed in the former New Artillerie Kaserne on the north side of ul. Ku Sloncu, forrerly Madeids Fataja. The sentry were a black cap band and a black chin strap. Some jeeps were observed in the berracks area. In a heach chin strap. Some jeeps were observed in the berracks area. In August 1952, 10 to 12 large tanks of one type approaching from the south on Aleja Bohaterow Warszawy and turning into ul. Ku Sloncu. from the south on Aleja Bohaterow Warszawy and turning into ul. Ku Sloncu. from the south on Aleja Bohaterow Warszawy and turning into ul. Ku Sloncu. fore and some to the rear. Soldiers wearing greyish blue uniforms with black cap bands and pulled-down chin straps rode on the rear of each tank. Only cap bands and pulled-down chin straps rode on the rear of each tank. Only the drivers, who locked through the driver's hetches, were leather helmets. 5X1 3. A sentry who were a khaki uniform and a blue cap band was observed in front of the former Viktoria Kaserne I on the south side of ul. Gen Jowinskiego between ul. Kilinskiego and Al. Piasow. 25X1 4. COMMINIONINAL
In late May 1952, Folish soldiers wearing greyish blue uniforms were observed in the former News Artillerie Kaserne on the north side of ul. (1950) 25X1X		Radio equipment was observed on the root of a ballacas
observed in the former Neue Artilleric Asserted vore a black cap band and a black chin strap. Some jeeps were observed in the barracks area. In a black chin strap. Some jeeps were observed in the barracks area. In August 1952, 10 to 12 large tanks of one type approaching from the south on Aleja Echaterow Warszawy and turning into ul. Ku Sloncu. The tanks had barrels projecting beyond their hulls and some pointing to the fore and some to the rear. Soldiers wearing greyish blue uniforms with black cap bands and pulled-down chin straps rode on the rear of each tank. Only the drivers, who looked through the driver's hatches, wore leather helmets. In a sentry who were a khaki uniform and a blue cap band was observed in front of the former Viktoria Kaserne I on the south side of ul. Gen Jowinskiego between ul. Killinskiego and Al. Piasow. 3 Computervitation Compute	5X1
observed in the former Neue Artilleric Asserted vore a black cap band and a black chin strap. Some jeeps were observed in the barracks area. In a black chin strap. Some jeeps were observed in the barracks area. In August 1952, 10 to 12 large tanks of one type approaching from the south on Aleja Echaterow Warszawy and turning into ul. Ku Sloncu. The tanks had barrels projecting beyond their hulls and some pointing to the fore and some to the rear. Soldiers wearing greyish blue uniforms with black cap bands and pulled-down chin straps rode on the rear of each tank. Only the drivers, who looked through the driver's hatches, wore leather helmets. In a sentry who were a khaki uniform and a blue cap band was observed in front of the former Viktoria Kaserne I on the south side of ul. Gen Jowinskiego between ul. Killinskiego and Al. Piasow. 3 Computervitation Compute		The late May 1952 Polish soldiers wearing greyish blue uniforms were a black chin strap. Some jeeps were observed in the tarks 1952, August 1952, It to 12 large tanks of one type approaching from the south on Aleja Bohaterow Warszawy and turning into ul. Ku Sloncus. The tanks had barrels projecting beyond their hulls and some pointing to the fore and some to the rear. Soldiers wearing greyish blue uniforms with black cap bands and pulled-down chin straps rode on the rear of each tank. Only the drivers, who looked through the driver's hatches, were leather helmets. In not know whether these tanks were stationed at the former Neue Artillerie Kaserne. 2 3. A sentry who were a khaki uniform and a blue cap band was observed in front of the former Viktoria Kaserne I on the south side of ul. Gen Jowinskiego between ul. Kilinskiego and Al. Piasow. 3		observed in the former Neue Artillerie Regentery were a black cap band and from the south on Aleja Eohaterow Warszawy and turning into ul. Ku Sloneu. from the south on Aleja Eohaterow Warszawy and turning into ul. Ku Sloneu. The tanks had barrels projecting beyond their hulls and sore pointing to the fore and some to the rear. Soldiers wearing greyish blue uniforms with black cap bands and pulled-down chin straps rode on the rear of each tank. Only the drivers, who looked through the driver's hatches, were leather helmets. I not know whether these tanks were stationed at the former Neue Artillerie Kaserne. 2 3. A sentry who wore a khaki uniform and a blue cap band was observed in front of the former Viktoria Kaserne I on the south side of ul. Gen Gowinskiego between ul. Kilinskiego and Al. Piasow. 25X1	25X1X
The tanks had barrels projecting beyond their fore and some to the rear. Soldiers wearing greyish blue uniforms with black cap bands and pulled-down chin straps rode on the rear of each tank. Only the drivers, who looked through the driver's hatches, wore leather helmets.	5X1	August 1952, 10 to 12 large and turning into ul. Ku Sloneu.
cap bands and pulled-down thin straps roue on the test of the drivers, who looked through the driver's hatches, were leather helmets. [Note that the former New Artillerie Kaserne. 2] 3. A sentry who were a khaki uniform and a blue cap band was observed in front of the former Viktoria Kaserne I on the south side of ul. Gen Gowinskiego between ul. Kilinskiego and Al. Piasow. 3 [Note that the former New Artillerie Kaserne I on the south side of ul. Gen Gowinskiego between ul. Kilinskiego and Al. Piasow. 3	•	The tanks had barrels projecting beyond their halfs and some promise with black Artillerie Kaserne. 2 3. A sentry who wore a khaki uniform and a blue cap band was observed in front of the former Viktoria Kaserne I on the south side of ul. Gen Jowinskiego between ul. Kilinskiego and Al. Piasow. 3 25X1)		cap hands and pulled-down chin straps rode on the leaf of carter helmets.
3. A sentry who wore a khaki uniform and a blue cap band was observed in front of the former Viktoria Kaserne I on the south side of ul. Gen Jowinskiego between ul. Kilinskiego and Al. Piasow. 3 25X1	5 Y 1	not know whether these tanks were stationed at the
the former Viktoria Kaserne 1 on the south side of the day of the day of the south side of the day of	JX1 /
25X1)	3,	A sentry who were a khaki uniform and a blue cap band was observed in front of the former Viktoria Kaserne I on the south side of ul. Gen Gowinskiego between
		ul. Kilinskiego and Al. Piasow.3
	, · · · .
SURFIDENTIAL/	25X1
SUPPLIENTIAL/
SUNFIDENTIAL/
SUNFIDENTIAL/	· ·
SUPPLIENTIAL/
		CLASSIFICATION GONFIDENTIAL/

		CONFIU ZNITAL/	- 2 -		25X1A
			*		25X1A
25X1A	1.	WOY troops is confirme	d up to late May 175		25X 1A
25X1A	2 .	installation was not of the reports started by students and y	ted that a number of young workers. Dreviously observed o Wojska Polskiego. I wdes a tank SP regime	hly at the former hraft- it is believed that the ent after the Soviet	。 25X1A
25X1A	3.	Coment. It is Security) sentry. A re- Volvodskin headcuarte	was and me Document have I	a KEW (Internal 951 stated that the ocated at this installa-	25X1
5V1A		++00		t .

Approved For Release 2003/12/11 : CIA-RDP80-00810A000900500002-5

CONFIDENTIAL/

25X1A